EDITOR GAZETTE:

Since my last communication the chimes of wedding bells have rang in our midst. The contract-parties were Mr R N Smith of this place and Mrs Mattie Franks of Amarillo, Texas. The ceremony was performed in Gonzales, Tuesday, April 14, Justice Shuler officiating. The happy couple were warmly received at his residence by a host of friends and relatives who had assembled to attend a reception given complimentary to the newly married couple. After congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous voyage upon life's matrimonial sea, merry conversation and different games were indulged in until refreshments were served, which everyone enjoyed. Then came the music, and the merry dancers could not refrain from the dizzy whirl. When the sweet strains of "Home, Sweet Home" were played departing footsteps were heard retracing their way, having been royally entertained by the new hostess and the groom's fair and amiable daughters, who made the occasion everything that could be desired for enjoyment.

Two steps in life are taken:
One is marriage; you bury the past.
The other, when earthly scenes are forgotten
And Heaven is gained at last.

You've pledged together yourselves for life,
Vowed to be true for weal and woe, Sworn to love through sorrow and strife,
Declared each others will to know.

We hope in all you may succeed.
Never know a moments contrition But trust, Ah! trust indeed, That all your hopes may reach fruition.

A WOMAN

HESITATES

It isn't to be wondered at that there are so many sick and half-
sick women.
Most of them
suppose their peculiar troubles
can only be cured
by the physician.

That means local treatment and examinations. No wonder they hesitate.
And hesitation gives disease a stronger foothold.

The truth is that local treatment and examinations are nearly always unnecessary. They should not be submitted to 'till everything else fails.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI

cures painful menstruation, irregularities, life-sapping drains, falling of the womb and flooding. It cures all the pains and troubles by making the feminine organs perfectly strong and healthy. Its action is wonderfully beneficial to girls just entering womanhood, and to women passing through the period known as the "change of life." No need to hesitate now. Cure can be had right at home.

What the World Needs.

A well man can be told that he is sick and he will feel bad. The information that he "Looks wretched" can be repeated to him frequently and he will actually go to bed and possibly die. The cry of hard times can be taken up and echoed and re-echoed until men with money in their pockets will not invest it, fearing that they cannot make a profit, and many who have money will not meet their obligations believing that they might suffer if they parted with their ready cash. Talk of hard times makes the times hard. Be cheerful. Look on the bright side of things. Be practical, patient and persistent in an effort to do something. Whining and complaining is stale and unprofitable.
A growler is a nuisance. Half the ills of this world are imaginary and the other half exaggerated.
Discontent is a disease that is contagious. A disorganizer is more often dangerous than useful. The world needs more cheerful people and more confidence in their own capacity.—Greenville Herald.

The Aransas Pass will run an excursion on Wednesday, May 13th, to Colorado river on account of the picnic to be held there. Round trip tickets from Shiner and Moulton adults, 50 cents, children, 25.
